

Here is what previous Travel Salem interns have to say:

“Through my internship I experienced an office atmosphere and gained knowledge regarding various businesses and how they market themselves. The experience prepared me for my career, which just happens to be at Travel Salem!” ~ Kathie Reeves

“I chose Travel Salem as my internship site because I wanted a more rounded education with all the different aspects of the Hospitality and Tourism Industry, and that is exactly what I received! My supervisors were very instructive, and they kept me busy. I had instruction about everything from tour setup and event management to administrative work and visitor help. I would definitely recommend interning at Travel Salem because it is a fun, educational and rewarding experience!” ~ Jessica Arce

“College prepared me academically, but my internship with Travel Salem better prepared me for the professional world such as interacting with clients, clear and business-like communication and creative thinking. I was much more confident after my internship and found a job immediately after graduating due to connections I made at Travel Salem.” ~ Denease Schiffman
